

"Building our faith, by sharing the Faith, in love, here and abroad."

INNER CHANGE

There is an old story about a pig. The farmer brought the pig into the house. He gave the pig a bath and polished his hooves. He put some Chanel No. 5 on him and tied a blue ribbon around his neck. Then the farmer put the pig in the living room. The pig looked fine and was a very nice pet for a few minutes. But as soon as the door was opened the pig ran out the door and jumped back into a mud puddle. Why? Because he was a pig at heart. His nature had not been changed. He had been changed outwardly, but not inwardly. You can take a man and dress him up in a new suit, and he will look like a saint when he sits on the front pew. But he is not a saint until he is changed from within.
