She Invited A Friend

This a true story of a four year old girl! Each Sunday morning and Wednesday night a little girl named Becky would skip out of her front door and over to the next door with a tender knock. Becky's question was simply, "Can Denise come to church with us today?" Most of the time the answer was, "yes." The invitations continued. The visits continued. One day something was very different. Becky made her Sunday morning journey next door, but the answer was, "No." However, the words that followed were music to her ears. "No," the father answered, "Denise will be going with us this morning. We will see you at worship Miss Becky." The family visited, studies followed, and Denise's mother and father were baptized into Christ! What is the magic, the mystery, the awe? There is none! Just an invitation given over and over! Some things we make too hard. Some of the easiest things in life we conjure up into difficult messes. Some want sophisticated mail-outs to do it for us. Some believe that carefully designed programs will do it for us. Some want others to do it for us. Some, sadly enough don't care. Please understand: the benefits of mail outs, programs, and other avenues are wonderful when used wisely. But, nothing dismisses our personal responsibility to invite folks. Who? My neighbor, postman, doctor, mechanic, coach, teacher, friend, parent, child, uncle, aunt, Co-worker, partner, boss, banker, on and on. Jesus freed the man who had legions of evil spirits. He was changed and grateful and wanted to go with Jesus. Jesus refused to let him go, saying: "Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath compassion on thee" (Mark 5:19).
